Purpose: Surgery Grand Rounds is a monthly educational conference that results in direct improvements in patient care by providing surgeons and other allied health professionals with current information regarding the clinical, scientific, educational and professional aspects of surgical practice.

Target Audience: General surgery, plastic surgery, primary care, and oncology physicians

Learning Objectives: Upon completion of the activity, participants should be able to:

1. Review the current indications for nipple sparing mastectomy.
2. Evaluate the oncologic and clinical safety of nipple sparing mastectomy.
3. Critically appraise the outcomes of nipple sparing mastectomy, specifically: nipple function, breast aesthetics and patient satisfaction/quality of life.
